Attacks and Almost Kills a Boy.

Boston, June 1.—Patrick Comer, a sixteen-year-old lad from Peabody, was terribly torn by a mad elephant belonging to Forepaugh's show during the stay of the s low in this city. The boy was hard at work at the tents on the Coliseum grounds, glad of a chance to carn a ticket to the a ternoon show, and was earying an armful of hay into the elephants quarters. when one of the brutes suddenly snatched him from the ground, and for a momen swing him, screaming, in the air.

The trunk of the least was twined about the boy's walst, and with a final twirl the had was huried to the ground. The elepleant then attempted to gore and trample i on him. Before the attendants could r event it, with a stroke of one tunk the animal tore open the boy's body As the brute was about to finish the work by step ing upon his victim, the blows of poles, hooks and clubs distracted his att of on long enough to allow the attendto pull the unconscious boy beyond

The Tramp Scourge. NEW HAVEN, CONN., June 1 .- Tramps from New York and Boston are swarming in the country towns of Connecticut, and a number of outrages have been reported. Three children, who were alone in the house of their father, Leopold Wolf, of Morestown, north of Meriden, on Sunday evening, gave food to two beggars. The men demanded money and ransacked the house. The eldest child, a boy sixteen years old, got a pistol and drove the robbers out of doors. An hour later the house was on fire, and was burned to the ground. Before the fire broke out young George, who had driven the tramps out of the house, had put the other children to bed. They were rescued, and George saved $700 in money that his father had laid by in the house. number of men are on the track of the tramps, and expect to capture them.

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs : none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AVER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GEDNEY." 159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
